

Williamson County, Tennessee, Author Bibliography

Williamson County Public Library highlights local authors in an online bibliography hosted by the Library. The Local Author collection includes any author who has lived in Williamson County and has a published book. Self-published books are acceptable.

So that we may include your work in this archived special collection the library would be honored if you would sign and donate a copy of your book to the Williamson County Public Library's Local Author Collection. A second copy for circulation would also be appreciated.

A digital portrait is added to the bibliography if available. Email a digital photograph to ref@williamson-tn.org.

To be included in the online bibliography complete the questionnaire below and return by mail or email.

Name:

E-mail Address:

Street Address (optional):

Phone Number (optional):

Year of birth:

Where were you born?

Where did you grow up?

If you are no longer a resident of Williamson County, when did you reside here?

Where do you reside now?

Are these places significant to your writing?

Was your education significant to your writing?

Where did your interest in writing begin?

Briefly sketch in your career:

Please list the titles of your books and their dates of publication.

May we add you to the library's mailing list concerning upcoming workshops?